Brentwood Police Chief Announces his Retirement

After thirty-four years with the City of Brentwood, Chief Dan Fitzgerald, has decided to retire. He has accepted a position as Associate Director of CYC Sports with the Archdiocese of St. Louis. Dan has been a life-long Brentwood resident for over 50 years. Mayor Thornton and the Board of Aldermen are very appreciative of all Chief Fitzgerald's service to the community and thank him for his dedicated service to the community and his leadership of the Brentwood Police Department. His last day is Friday, May 5, 2017.
