Priority registration for Summer 2019 only applies to players when remaining on their Spring 2019 assigned team. If you wish to change teams, you lose priority status and must wait until open registration. During Open Registration: Participants must register as individuals but may include up to 4 teammate requests. There is no guarantee that you will be placed on the same team with all your requests. Six teams (with a ten-player minimum, one goaltender roster) will be assembled after the registration period is over and rosters/game schedules will be sent to players no later than June 3rd. All participants must be 18 years of age or older to play. Brentwood Parks and Recreation staff reserves the right to approve or remove any player in any division at any time. Fees are due at time of registration and may be paid during normal business hours in person at Brentwood Ice Rink or over the phone (314)-963-8684 with credit card (with registration form sent via email). Registration is not complete until fees are paid. USA Hockey Registration is required for participation.
