The Officer Tamarris Bohannon Food Drive: Donate Shelf-Stable Food and Personal Care Items at the Brentwood Police Department

Brentwood, Missouri – November 17, 2020 – The City of Brentwood, The FBI St. Louis Citizens Academy Alumni Association is partnering with St. Louis Area Foodbank to honor St. Louis Metropolitan Police Officer Tamarris Bohannon.

Officer Bohannon, 29, was killed in the line of duty on August 29, 2020. Officer Bohannon leaves behind a wife and three children. He was the first member of the SLMPD to be killed in the line of duty since 2011.

Please join us in honoring his memory by donating shelf-stable food and personal care items to benefit families and individuals in need in our community.

A collection bin will be in the outer lobby of the Brentwood Police station, 272 Hanley Industrial Drive, from November 17 through November 24. The outer lobby can be accessed 24 hours each day.

The full list of donation locations is available at <http://fbistlcaaa.org>. Find a list of recommended food and personal care items at <https://stlfoodbank.org>.
